(d) Sriyuths :

1. B. F. Hunashimarad, Talathi, Mundargi Taluk.
2. R. S. Irkar, Talathi Shiggaon Taluk.
3. M. T. Ballolli, Talathi, Byadgi Taluk.
4. H. S. Puttannavar, Talathi, Byadgi Taluk.
5. M. N. Shiralli, Talathi, Hirekerur Taluk.
6. P. A. Yaligar, Talathi, Kundgol Taluk.

Reasons :—

1. The mis-appropriation in respect of Sri Hunashimarad was detected after his sudden death due to heart failure and therefore the question of filing a complaint did not arise. In fact the entire amount of Rs. 2,361-42 mis-appropriated by the deceased Talathi was recovered.

2. Regarding Sri Irkar, he has been dismissed from Government Service under Deputy Commissioner's Order No. EST. SR. 240 dated 7th June 1972.

3. In the case of M. T. Ballolli, it was held during the departmental enquiry, that there was a delay of some days in crediting the amount and that it was found not necessary to prosecute him. Two increments of Sri Ballolli were stopped under Deputy Commissioner's Order No. ESD. SR. 243, dated 14th August 1972.

4. Regarding H. S. Puttannavar, it was held in the Departmental enquiry that there was delay in crediting the amount as the entire mis-appropriated amount was credited by the delinquent.

5. Regarding Sri M. N. Shirali, there was also delay in remitting the collections made by him. In this departmental enquiry his two increments were stopped by the Deputy Commissioner under his Order No. ESD. SR. 242, dated 8th April 1972.

6. Regarding Sri P. A. Yaligar, Departmental enquiry is in progress. After completing the enquiry and if it is held that the Talathi is responsible for the mis-appropriation, the question of lodging a Complaint against him would be considered.
